

104 Accommodating Individuals with Disabilities

Effective Date: 05/07/2018

We are committed to complying with all applicable provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act (“ADA”). It is our policy not to discriminate against any qualified employee or applicant with regard to any terms or conditions of employment because of such individual’s disability. This includes, but is not limited to, discrimination with respect to hiring, promotion, discharge, compensation, benefits, training, and all other aspects of employment.

If you believe you need a reasonable accommodation to perform the essential functions of your job, contact the Human Resources Department. Consistent with this policy of nondiscrimination, we will provide reasonable accommodations to a qualified individual with a disability, as defined by the ADA, provided that such accommodation does not constitute an undue hardship on our organization. We encourage individuals with disabilities to come forward and request reasonable accommodations if needed.

On receipt of an accommodation request, a member of the Human Resources Department will meet with you to discuss and identify the precise limitations resulting from the disability and the potential accommodation that we might make to help you overcome those limitations. We may request reasonable medical documentation to help us better understand your limitations and necessary reasonable accommodations.

We will determine whether the requested accommodation constitutes an undue hardship by considering various factors, including, but not limited to the nature and cost of the accommodation in light of the our financial resources and the accommodation’s impact on the operation of our organization, including its impact on the ability of other employees to perform their duties and our ability to conduct business.

The ADA does not require us to reallocate essential job functions or to provide personal use items such as eyeglasses, hearing aids, and wheelchairs. We retain sole discretion to determine the reasonableness of requested accommodations.

You must comply with safety rules at all times. We make every effort to place applicants and employees in positions for which they are qualified. However, in the event that you are placed in a position where, with or without a reasonable accommodation, you would create a direct threat to the safety or health of yourself or others, we may remove you from the position until we can obtain medical documentation regarding your ability to safely perform the essential functions of the position.

Information obtained or provided in connection with the existence of a disability, or the need for an accommodation, will be kept strictly confidential, and will only be disclosed to those individuals who have an actual need to know about them, and then, only to the degree necessary.

If you have a question or concern about this policy, you are encouraged to bring these issues to the attention of the Human Resources Department. You can raise concerns and make reports without fear of reprisal. Anyone found to be in violation of this policy will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.
