The county commission authorizes the commission chair, or the vice chair in the chair's absence, to review any of the following items without a full meeting of the commission. The chair, or the vice chair in the chair's absence, is authorized to approve related permit, disapprove the permit, request a special meeting for the commission to address the item, or postpone a decision until the next regularly scheduled commission meeting. Any permit approved in this manner shall have the same effect as if approved by the full commission. Any permit that is approved or disapproved in this manner shall be placed on the agenda at the next regularly scheduled commission meeting for general review purposes.

The permits that may be approved or disapproved in this manner are limited to the following circumstances:

1. Permits for serving alcohol at special events or for use on Sunday, pursuant to N.D.C.C. 5-02-01.1 and 5-02-05.1, respectively.
2. Local permits for gaming purposes, pursuant to N.D.C.C. 53-06.1-03.
3. Permits for the public display of fireworks, pursuant to N.D.C.C. 23-15-03.

All other related statutory requirements must be met.
